Wonky Donkey Rules

The game is played with a button and blinds.

Each player is dealt two cards face down, followed by a round of betting at the small bet limit.

Three community cards are dealt face up.

If two or three of the cards are red, the rest of the hand is played like Hold'em.

If two or three of the cards are black, each player is dealt two additional cards and the rest of the hand is played like Omaha 8 or Better.

Betting during the flop round occurs after players receive their two additional cards, if applicable.

Chowaha Rules

The game is played with a button and blinds.

Each player is dealt two cards face down, followed by a round of betting at the small bet limit.

Three flops are dealt one above the other forming a 3x3 square of cards. This is followed by a round of betting at the small bet limit.

Two turn cards are dealt vertically to the right of the flop cards from the dealer's perspective. This is followed by a round of betting at the big bet limit.

One river card is placed to the right of the turn cards. This is followed by a round of betting at the big bet limit. This is followed by a showdown.

At the showdown, the board will look like this:

```
  X X X
      Y
  X X X   Z

The cards labelled X are the flop cards, the cards marked Y are the turn cards, and Z is the river card.

The best high hand wins the pot. The high hand consists of a player's two hole cards plus the cards from one flop, one turn adjacent to the flop being used, and the river. These may be played in any combination EXCEPT that board cards used CANNOT consist of the top row of the flop plus the bottom turn card or the bottom row of the flop plus the top turn card. That is, the flop, turn, and river must all be contiguous cards. Also, as in Omaha, each player must use both hole cards plus three cards from the board to form each portion of their hand.

Rio Bravo Rules

Rio Bravo is played like Hold'em, except that after the river betting players are dealt a third down card and there is another round of betting at the big bet limit. Players may use 0 through 3 hole cards at showdown.

Sack Rules

Sack is played with a button and blinds. Each player is dealt five cards face down, followed by a round of betting at the small bet limit. At the time of their preflop action, if they are not folding, each player must discard 0 to 4 of their cards, leaving from 1 to 5 cards remaining in their hand. Players must arrange their down cards on the table such that it is clear how many cards each has kept.

Three community cards are dealt face up, followed by a round of betting at the small bet limit. One additional community card is dealt face up, followed by a round of betting at the big bet limit. A final community card is dealt face up, followed by a round of betting at the big bet limit.

The best high hand and best California low hand of at least eight low or better splits the pot. Hands are made using all cards from the player's hand and the number of board cards necessary to make a five-card hand.

NOTE: Unlike Omaha/8, no matter what comes on the board, a low hand is possible as long as a player has retained a sufficient number of cards to make a qualifying low hand.
